

Who We Are

The Mustard Seed Foundation is a Christian family foundation established in 1983 under the leadership of Dennis W. Bakke and Eileen Harvey Bakke. The Foundation was created as an expression of the Bakke's desire to be faithful stewards of the financial resources entrusted to them, to bring together the members of their extended families into common ministry, and to advance the Kingdom of God. The Foundation provides grants primarily to churches worldwide that are undertaking new ministry projects including outreach, discipleship, and economic empowerment. The Foundation also awards scholarships to Christians pursuing advanced educational degrees in preparation for leadership roles in society. The Foundation affirms the Lausanne Covenant as its missional commitment to the world. All directors and staff of the Mustard Seed Foundation are committed followers of Jesus Christ.

2017 Overview

Dear Friends,

This past year was another fruitful season in the life of the Mustard Seed Foundation. Members of our small MSF staff team continue to travel the world to meet with church leaders that are working to share the good news of Jesus Christ, to disciple new believers, and to transform their communities by loving and serving their neighbors. MSF partners with these local congregations by giving small grants to match their budgets and to encourage their efforts.

Out of a total operating budget of nearly $2.7 million, our giving in 2017 was about $2 million. Our dedicated Board and staff reviewed and approved 220 church grants in 49 countries, ranging from church planting grants, to youth discipleship, to outreach to Muslim refugees, to small enterprise loan funds in economically distressed cities. Our average grant size was $6,000, ranging from smaller grants of $2,500 in South Asia to significantly larger grants in the US, Europe, and Japan.

The Harvey Fellows program continues to flourish, with support for 32 gifted Christian graduate students totaling $384,000. Our Theology of Work program in 2017 supported 35 courses and seminars worldwide with $221,000 in grants. 5,964 students graduated from these courses, and evaluations indicate that lives are changed and people empowered by understanding how God works through our vocations and endeavors.

We are grateful for the diligence and wisdom of the Mustard Seed Board, comprised of three generations of members of the Harvey and Bakke families. In 2017 Tucker Laffitte rotated off the Board after five years of service and Elizabeth Bakke retired after a decade of service. New members Margaret Bakke and Dargan Thompson began serving on the Board.

Our Junior Board had an exciting and productive year. Brian Bakke and Jesus Canales led a group of four teens on an "urban plunge" to Guatemala City, where they visited grantees and were able to better understand the challenges of poverty in the developing world. Moved by their experiences with school children in Guatemala City, they decided to collect money from their own funds to pay for one child's school scholarship. Eleven grants were approved, totaling $40,648.

As we look for trends in world affairs and in our giving, we are encouraged by the renewal of faith and church planting, small but steady, in Western and Eastern Europe, especially in former communist countries. We are heartened by the sacrificial ways many churches respond to suffering from natural disasters and from the refugee displacement caused by war, famine, or political upheaval. We remain concerned about the suffering and exodus of Christians in the Middle East, and about persecuted Christians around the globe. We see evidence that faith in Christ often flourishes under persecution, as is happening in Egypt and China. We continue to pray for an explosion of the gospel in nations caught in conflict, suffering under religious repression or culturally resistant to the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Reflecting on 2017 in the life of the Mustard Seed Foundation, we are aware that God has plans and designs that we often can only dimly see. It is a privilege and a delight to be children of God and part of his son Jesus Christ's body of believers. As each of us trusts in Christ and walks with him, listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit and obeying his words to us, God in his wisdom unfolds plans that we could never imagine in our limited minds! We pray this will be a reality in your life.

Eileen & Dennis Bakke

Financials

The Foundation's expenditures totaled almost $2.67 million in 2017. Almost 73 percent of these funds were given through 220 grants to churches and 32 scholarships to individuals. Providing grants for small startup projects of churches in major urban centers worldwide remains the primary giving area of the Foundation, as it has been since the Foundation's inception. The remainder of the Foundation's giving was channeled through the Harvey Fellowship and the Theology of Work grant program.

Grants Overview

In 2017 we awarded $1,334,914 in grants matched by local churches to help establish 220 new innovative, grass-roots ministries mostly in the largest urban centers of the world.

As our name implies, the Mustard Seed Foundation provides seed funding for small startup projects primarily to churches around the world. We seek to partner with local congregations that identify, equip, and support their members who are called to specific areas of ministry in the Church and society. We look for initiatives that offer innovative approaches to church-based ministries.

Mustard Seed seeks to help launch projects through its grants as a minority partner, providing funds over a limited time period, and in a way that encourages self-sufficiency and reliance on indigenous church support. We consider local church accountability and financial support to be primary indicators of the priority and integrity of a particular project and key to its long-term sustainability. All of the funds given as grants are matched by funds from local churches connected to the projects.

The Foundation recognizes the unique challenges and opportunities faced by urban churches. As the world rapidly urbanizes, we believe that investing in churches located in large cities to be particularly strategic. The Foundation awards most grants in the largest urban centers of the world.

Mustard Seed awards grants to a wide variety of projects. We typically fund initiatives that share the gospel with non-Christians (outreach), generate income and economic decision-making opportunities to poorer Christians (empowerment), or equip Christians to better proclaim and demonstrate the gospel (discipleship).

T.A. Bakke Award

Each year the Mustard Seed Foundation designates one grant award as a special tribute to the life of one of our founding board members. Tollef A. Bakke was a second generation Norwegian immigrant who lived and worked in the Pacific Northwest and Colorado. He also participated in a trip to the Holy Land that profoundly influenced his faith.

We recognize the grant award to A Seattle Church in Washington, U.S.. This was a $10,000 grant to establish a church in downtown Seattle.

Savina Tong Award

Savina Tong represented the Foundation for eight years to encourage the work of local churches in East Asia. Savina helped the Foundation to connect with the fast-growing church of mainland China as well as in the more open locations of Hong Kong and Taiwan. Since her passing in 2010, the Foundation has selected a grant award each year as a tribute to her life and ministry among us.

We recognize the grant award to Midorino Christ Church in Yokohama, Japan as our 2017 Savina Tong Award. This was a $20,000 grant to establish a restaurant outreach ministry.

Harvey Fellows Program

In 2017 the Foundation invested $384,000 in support of 32 graduate students preparing to enter strategic vocations in academia, the arts, and the marketplace. We were privileged to award 9 new fellowships to an extraordinary group of graduate students from around the world.

The Mustard Seed Foundation initiated the Harvey Fellows Program in 1992 to mark, equip, and encourage followers of Jesus Christ who seek to actively integrate their faith and vocations as leaders in strategic occupations where Christians appear to be underrepresented. This idea grew from our understanding of God as Creator and Redeemer, not only of human beings, but also of society's disciplines and structures.

Our desire is to identify, prepare, and celebrate this generation's Josephs, Lydias, Daniels, and Esthers—Christians who will assume positions of leadership and influence in society. The Harvey Fellowship is a stipend of $16,000 that may be renewed for up to two additional years. The award is given to outstanding students enrolled at a premier graduate degree program and is therefore very competitive. Harvey Fellows typically attend schools considered by professionals to be among the top five globally in a given subject area or specialty.

Theology of Work

In 2017 we awarded 35 Theology of Work (TOW) grants totaling $221,040 to seminaries and ministries worldwide. 5,964 students participated in courses in hopes that through them churches will actively teach their congregants a strong theology of work that brings the same sense of calling to one's work in the world as one's work within the Church.

The Theology of Work grant program was established in 2007 in collaboration with Bakke Graduate University (BGU). The aim of this special grant initiative is to enable theological institutions and training organizations worldwide to instruct seminarians, pastors, and educators in a biblical basis of a theology of work. It is our desire to see those trained through our grants begin teaching and modeling this theological concept in their own churches and ministries. This theological understanding empowers lay people to infuse their Christian faith in the institutions, structures, and industries in which they work throughout the week.

TOW grants are awarded to theological institutions; both formal and non-formal, to create and offer courses that teach students a theology of work. The institutions are encouraged to integrate this theology into their core curriculum to continue to teach the course after the grant-funded classes are completed. The TOW grant program is administered by BGU, which fosters a network of people and resources specializing in developing and teaching curriculum for theology of work.
